VOL. VIII. NO. 47.

CHICAGO, SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 23, 1902.

PRICE 5 CENTS.

HARLEM STAKE ENTRIES.

In announcing the receipt of 1,309 nominations for the twelve stakes of the Harlem Jockey Club that closed on February 10, Secretary Nathanson claims to have reached the highest mark for events of this kind. With cash entrance fees of $10 and upward prevailing for stakes on the Chicago tracks, the recently closed lists show the average per stake to be: Washington Park, $3; Hawthorne, $6; Harlem, $10. This is a general increase over the figures for the identical stakes of 1901, and at once indicates a certainty of sport of the highest grade for the coming season. Some features of unusual importance are shown by the details of the present Harlem stake list, a resume of which follows:

FOR THREE-YEAR-OLDS AND UPWARD.

	Dist., miles.	Entries, 1902.	Entries, 1901.	Value, starters.
Twentieth Century	1 3-16	101	94	$7,515
Harlem	1 1-8	97	105	5,705
Chicago	1	114	109	3,640
Austin	1 1-16	146	121	3,400
Garden City	3-4	131	129	3,810

FOR THREE-YEAR-OLDS.

M. Lewis Clark	1 1-8	76	85	3,410
Riverside	1	99	87	2,990

FOR TWO-YEAR-OLDS.

Petite	4 1/2 fur.	108	89	3,080
Graduate	5-8	99	86	2,990
Youngster	5-8	106	106	3,060
Proviso	5 1/2 fur.	120	97	3,200
Junior	3-4	112	91	3,120

Totals	1,309	1,199	$45,980
Av. per stake	109	100	3,831

Only two stakes show a falling off in number of entries, the Harlem Handicap having eight and the M. Lewis Clark Stakes nine less than for 1901. All the others show substantial increase, eight of the fixtures having over 100 nominations each, and the Austin leading with an enormous total of 146 candidates. The five stakes for three-year-olds and upward attracted the entry of 589 horses, an average of 118, and the five for two-year-olds are rich with 545 names, an average of 109.

There can be no question as to the superior quality of material shown in the Harlem offerings of this season as compared with the many high-class horses that participated in last year's sport. All of the great stables of the west and south are represented through the list in a way that indicates their determination to race in Chicago throughout the season, while for the first time a track other than Washington Park has succeeded in opening relations with the millionaire owners of the east. In this fact is to be found the greatest promise for the future of local racing, as the beginning thus made is likely to develop into a movement that will grow in strength from year to year.

J. G. Follansbee, a steward of the Jockey Club, has engaged his American Derby candidates, Cameron and Keynote, in the M. Lewis Clark Stakes. L. V. Bell, the broker, is represented by Paul Clifford, Sweet Tooth and Eady Sterling; Green B. Morris has named his great handicap pair, Water Cure and Autolight, and his Derby hopes, Homestead and Cunard; Capt. S. S. Brown is in with a string of youngsters, and L. O. Appleby, T. D. Sullivan, M. Jordan, W. M. Rogers, J. T. Stewart, George W. Shearer and Mrs. F. Mossom are among the others from the east having entries at Harlem.

A feature of absorbing interest will be the showing made by the large number of thoroughbreds imported and entered by E. Corrigan and John A. Drake. After the Washington Park stakes closed Mr. Corrigan purchased an additional lot of high-class performers in England in time to nominate them for the Harlem fixtures, among them Scintillant, declared by his owner to be probably the best thoroughbred in training ever shipped to America; Cactus, Marta Santa, Judicious, Western Duke and the Ravensbury colt. In all, Mr. Corrigan has named some forty different horses from home and foreign studs, while Mr. Drake has engagements in all stakes for which Alta Loma, Alvescot, Corblet's Bay, Harrow and Griffiths, besides Runnels and Wyeth, are eligible.

All the Chicago owners are, of course, heavily represented, and with only three exceptions, every important western and southern stable is listed. The missing trio are "Lucky" Baldwin, who ships east from Washington Park, W. B. Jennings, and Burns & Waterhouse, who go to New York from California.

HAWTHORNE STAKE ENTRIES.

The Northern Handicap is the most valuable stakes offered by the Chicago Jockey Club and with its $5,000 added money easily ranks with the most important fixtures of the western turf. It has eighty-seven entries of the best handicap horses likely to run in the west this year, the list being as follows:

The Northern Handicap.—A handicap sweepstakes for three-year-olds and upward. Entrance $20 each to accompany the nomination; $100 additional to start. The club to add $5,000, of which $700 to the second and $300 to the third. Weights to appear three days before the race. One mile and a quarter.

Winner—B. g. by Foul Shot or Balgown—Marjorie. Went to post at 2:10. At post 8 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Budd Wade under a lucky and vigorous ride, saved several lengths on the turn to the stretch which won for him. Mildred Schultz broke slowly but appeared to be going easily throughout and a sure winner, but failed right at the end and was probably best. Montoya showed plenty of speed but lost much ground on the stretch turn. Oratossa went well. Derby Winner closed a big gap and ran in improved form. Breton, off poorly, quit early.

Scratched—27462 Blackthorn, 112.

Overweights—Budd Wade, 2 pounds; Breton, 1; Ali, 2.

Winner—B. c. by Oddfellow—Leonatus mare No. 2. Went to post at 2:48. At post 5 minutes. Start straggling. Won driving; second easily. High Chancellor was lucky and finely ridden and finished strongly, but was lucky to beat Gaviota. The latter got away badly and was weakly handled at the end. Adirondack made a wide stretch turn and was not at his best today in the sticky going, which was against him. The Fog is a fine looker and showed tremendous speed, but was far from fit. He will beat this kind easily hereafter. La Figaro and Discharged are both good lookers.

Overweights—Adirondack, 1 pound; Discharged, 4.

Winner—B. g. by Pardee—Caprice, by Leonatus. Went to post at 3:18. At post 8 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Wyoming broke flatfooted and trailed to the stretch where he saved much ground in coming through next to the rail and won going away. Irate showed remarkable speed and stamina and will do to watch hereafter. Quiz ran a good race and finished strongly. Sharp Bird tired in the sticky going. Tyranus was outrun early but closed up fast at the end. The others were outclassed.

Winner—Ch. g. by Fonso—Miss Nannie. Went to post at 4:00. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second driving. Frangible was particularly favored by the sticky going and his light weight. He practically set the pace throughout and was going away at the end. Diderot stayed better than usual and was crossed at the end by the turn, but finished with a rush and was probably best. The Fretter was prominent to the last sixteenth. Formero had no chance with his ride, but finished strongly. Black Dick was unable to stride freely in the going and tired badly in the stretch. Siddons made up a lot of ground. John McGurk was outclassed.

Scratched—30778 Sea Lion, 97.

were our best bets Saturday at Oakland. Nobleman, our advertised special at New Orleans, won easily. $500 forfeit if the above were not given on our sheet.

MONDAY

one just as good as Sylvia Talbot and Georgie West—both given by us the first time they started and both won galloping. Also one at New Orleans just as good as Nobleman, that will be long odds and will win by a block.

Give us a trial and be convinced that what we advertise we do. We don't give eighteen races daily like other handicappers.

NO HUMBAG OR GUESSING WITH US.

Winner—B. g. by Islington—Joy, by Wildile.
Went to post at 4:25. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Nilgar found the soft going grateful and showed the way throughout, running well in head and won with something to spare. Constable appeared like the winner to the stretch turn, but tired at the end. Merops was badly handled, but finished fast. Lode Star ran poorly. El Mido showed early speed.

Scratched—30793 Formero, 103.

Went to post at 4:45. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Tiburon was skillfully handled, ran to his best form and finished fast next to the inner rail. Galanthus ran well and was best, but lost several lengths and the race by making a wide stretch turn. Horton closed a big gap, but found the journey too short. Gusto quit badly in the stretch. Educate was outclassed. Grafter prefers sloppy or fast going and was badly ridden.

Winner—B. f. by Tea Tray—The Black Squaw.
Went to post at 2:00. At post 15 minutes. Start fair. Won driving; second the same. The Bronze Demon was favored in the weights and made the most of it. She came wide into the stretch but got the advantage of the best going and finished strongly. H. S. Tobacco showed sudden and great improvement and ran a good game race. He and Aaron finished next to the inner rail after cutting the stretch turn closely. Aaron finished very strongly and would have been second in another stride. Judge Magee was cut off in the stretch. Masterful ran a fairly good race.

Winner—B. g. by Blazes—Bettie Prince.
Went to post at 3:42. At post 13 minutes. Start fair. Won driving; second the same. There was so much bumping and jostling in the race that it was not truly run. Prince Blazes was lucky and free from interferences, was favored by the going and ran to his best form. Albert F. Dewey was bumping several horses in the stretch. He swerved across Ida Ledford and knocked her out of it, but ran a good race for him. Piederich just managed to last long enough to get third place. Strangest was coming very strongly at the end. Eva Rice was off well, while Ida Ledford was practically left.

Went to post at 4:27. At post 1 minute. Start poor. Won easily; second the same. Nobleman showed decided improvement, ran a good race and easily came away from the others when his rider was ready. Amigari got away badly and was made too much use of in the first part of the race in trying to catch up and tired at the end. Pigeon Post was tiring at the end and just lasted long enough to keep third place. Lennep was moving and had a lengths advantage at the start, but failed to concede the weight.
